

BOB KILL
ENTERPRISE MINNESOTA

Bob Kill serves as President and CEO of Enterprise Minnesota where he guides that organization to help the state's manufacturers grow and compete profitably.

Prior to leading Enterprise Minnesota, Kill served as chief executive officer of Ciprico Inc., a manufacturer of high performance data and networking systems. He was named Ciprico's chairman of the board in March 2004. Before joining Ciprico, Kill served in several management positions with Northern Telecom Inc.

With an economics degree from the University of Minnesota, Kill began his career with Burroughs Corporation, went on to serve as a board member of technology, manufacturing, and startup companies, and currently serves as a board member on both the Minnesota Job Skills Partnership, and the State of Minnesota's Agriculture and Economic Development Board.
