

ROY SMITH
IRON RANGE RESOURCES
NORHTEAST MINNESOTA HIGHER EDUCATION DISTRICT

Roy Smith is a graduate of Hibbing Community College, has a Bachelors degree from Bemidji State University, a Masters degree from St. Cloud State University, and an Educational Specialist degree in education leadership from Nova Southeastern University in Las Vegas, Nevada. Roy brings with him over 20 years in education as a teacher and school administrator. Iron Range Resources and the Northeast Minnesota Higher Education District recently appointed Roy Smith as Regional Workforce Development Coordinator responsible for developing and tracking a trained workforce to enhance economic growth across Northeast Minnesota. Roy believes that “Education is paramount in developing a workforce that increases competitiveness, economic growth, and trade.”

